CODE REVIEW Application

No constants

No interfaces

100% code coverage

No unused members

No streams

All classes are small and concise

Class structure met

No comments

Self documenting code

No null returns

No duplicate code

No nested logic

Constructers have less than 5 parameters

Encapsulation is followed

Members are name properly

No try catch blocks

Uniform coding standards used across the application

No helper classes needed

No API's needed

Statements aren't too long

Can't test if additional code will break current work

No immutable class needed

Strings not checked